

MOTHERS THANK JUDGE BROWN

School Teachers Also Grateful.

Gratifying Results Shown in First Week Juvenile Court.

Sixty-One Boys Reported to Jurist Yesterday, as They Had Been Ordered to Do.

Sixty-one boys came up to the juvenile court yesterday morning to report as they had been ordered to do. Saturday is the day on which all delinquents on probation have to report their conduct. It has been during the week. Nearly cheers for Judge Willis Brown were given when they all were dismissed.

Gratifying Results.
Yesterday morning showed the most gratifying results of the court's work in the first week. Each of them had to bring a letter from his school teacher, countersigned by the principal and also from his mother. The big heap of letters filed away in Judge Brown's desk are the best evidence of the good work that is being accomplished by the court. They all of them show that a start has been made in reclaiming the children and keeping them out of the criminal courts. Only one boy that was told to report failed to do so, through disobedience. That boy, it is feared, is beyond the court. A warrant will be sworn out charging him with incorrigibility.

Thanks the Judge.
School teachers, principals, mothers and fathers all write in the same strain. One mother wrote thanking Judge Brown for what he had done for her boy, saying that he had been a different child since he had been in the juvenile court. This particular boy was so bad that nobody has hitherto been able to handle him. He had cost his father $30 in the past two years for getting him out of scrapes.

Youngsters Happy.
All of the youngsters seemed to be thoroughly happy. They took in what Judge Brown said to them with deep attention. When they were let out they cheered the judge, in whom they seemed to have found a firm friend.

Detention Home Needed.
The need for a detention home is at present the problem that confronts the court. Judge Brown said yesterday that in about a month he would have eight or ten boys whom he would be compelled to send to the reform school for want of such a home. There are boys who have to be looked after in that way, who would be spoiled instead of reformed at the reform school. It has been figured out that they will cost the city much more at Ogden than they would if housed in a detention home. The Children's Home and Day Nursery association could supply the need, if the city could furnish the funds. It is hoped that in time this will be done in order to save the expense to the city as well as the boys.

SUES THE UNION PACIFIC.

C. B. Johnson Demands Damages for Alleged Injuries to Stock.

C. B. Johnson is suing the Union Pacific Railroad company for $125 damages for some horses shipped over the road. The complaint was filed in the District court. The plaintiff alleges that because of the company's carelessness and negligence his horses were damaged and one black stallion worth $100 died. He shipped one carload of animals at Pocatello, Ida., on November 15, 1900, for Kansas City. He alleges that the company, instead of shipping them direct, kept them sidetracked at Gering, Wyo., that they were kept confined in the car without food and water, without being unloaded for thirty-six and one-half days. He claims that the provisions of the statute, which provide that horses shall not be confined for more than twenty-eight days as a consequence of their confinement, the horses became vicious and restless and killed one another. On this cause of action the plaintiff claims $125.

CRANE-JUDGE SUIT.

Judge Morse Decides Case in Favor of Plaintiff.

Judge Morse found the issues for the plaintiff yesterday in the case of Charles Crane vs. Mary Judge. The decree quieted the plaintiff's title to a strip of ground six inches wide, but does not allow him to tear down the wall erected on that ground. The suit arises out of the construction of the Kirtick block. It seems that the wall and foundation on one side of the ground encroached on Mr. Crane's ground. He filed a suit as soon as he found it out, asking to be allowed to take possession. The court held that he is the owner of the ground and also entitled to a half interest in the wall belonging to the defendant.

ORDERED TO VACATE.

Mary Thomas Will Leave Her Home Pending Settlement of Suit.

Pending the settlement of a condemnation suit, Mary D. Thomas has to vacate her home on Sixth West. Counsel for the Rio Grande Western railway made a motion yesterday that she be ordered to vacate. Judge Ritchie granted the motion and ordered that the railroad company have possession of her home on May 1. In the meantime Mrs. Thomas is to be paid $15 a month until the case is decided. This is the first of the condemnation suits to enable the railroad to build the track to connect with the San Pedro tracks on South Temple.

Judgment for Lumber Company.

Judgment for the defendant was rendered by Judge Morse yesterday in the case of the Utah Lumber company vs. Mary Edelson and A. C. Riney. This was a suit brought to recover $2217 on a builder's lien for a house built on the defendant's land. The defendants had a counter claim against the plaintiff.

Court Notes.

Judgment for $229 and interest from June, 1902, was rendered by Judge Morse in favor of the Smith Wallace Shoe company against Meyer & Henry. The money was due for goods delivered.

Franklin Lawrence has filed suit in the District court against P. T. Elwell and others, to quiet title to some real estate in Salt Lake City. The property is claimed by the defendant under an adverse claim.

Judge Armstrong appointed William J. Dooley guardian of Margaretta M. McDonough yesterday. His bond was fixed at $1150. The child's father, Bernard C. McDonough, who had acted as her guardian, died on March 16.

On motion of the plaintiff, Judge Morse has dismissed without prejudice the case of Maud B. Youmans vs. Ventali Jeanman. This was a divorce suit brought on March 5, 1900. Mrs. Youmans stated in her complaint that her husband had deserted her. They were married at Victor, Ida., in January, 1897.

SINGER WANTS LIBERTY.

Margarita Lemon Sues for Annulment of Marriage.

NEW YORK, April 22—Margarita Lemon, one of the prima donnas of the Metropolitan Opera company, who sang here in grand opera last winter and is now singing with the Conried Opera company, has brought suit in the New York State Supreme court to have her marriage to J. Reed Little, a prominent patent lawyer of this city, annulled. The case was today set for trial next Tuesday.

The opera singer demands a separation on the grounds that the decree of divorce granted to her husband's first wife, Mabel Little, in Chicago in 1899, is not valid in this State. Mr. Little's answer is a general denial, and sets up the fact that his wife's first divorce was a legal one.

Margarita Lemon has figured of late rather prominently in Herr Conried's Wagner productions.

WASHINGTON, April 22—It was announced at the Navy department today that one of two battleships the construction of which was authorized at the last session of Congress will be named the Michigan. The second of the Michigan class, which had been selected for No. 28,

Reno's Light Plant Is Again Wrecked

Second Breakdown Within a Month Nearly Kills Foreman—Damage Is Quite Heavy.

RENO, Nev., April 22—For the second time within a month the Reno Power, Light and Water company's plant has been wrecked. The first accident occurred a few weeks ago, when the power-house was nearly wrecked, causing a damage amounting to more than $5000.

City Without Power.
Since that time and until yesterday the city has been illuminated with power from Floriston, Cal. The system was turned into the old circuit yesterday, and this evening the plant again went down. The transformers are burned out beyond repair, and other breaks have occurred that will necessitate a still further delay and loss to machinery alone of more than $2500.

Foreman Has Narrow Escape.
The foreman in charge of the plant had a narrow escape. What caused this accident is not known.

CANNON ON HUNT.

Speaker Goes to Mexico in Quest of Big Game.

EL PASO, Tex., April 22—To hunt big game in the Sierra Madre of northern Mexico, one of the wildest sections of the country, Speaker Joe Cannon of the National House of Representatives, in company with several other men of national prominence, left Washington today in a special train, the guests of Col. W. C. Greene.

The party will arrive in El Paso next Tuesday and proceed to Sonora, where a welcome will be extended them by Gov. Yanez and Gen. Luis Torrey. Upon returning here they will go into the mountains to hunt bear, mountain lions, tiger and other game.

Those in the party are: Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Senator Reddy of California, Vermont, Senator Asbury C. Lattimer of North Carolina, Congressman James T. Clearer of Minnesota, Congressman Hemmeyer of Indiana, ex-Gov. Harris of North Carolina, ex-Gov. Woodbury of Vermont, Congressman W. D. Houston of Tennessee and a number of others.

HAD A STOLEN BOND.

Was Taken in Famous Hope Burglary of 1878.

NEW YORK, April 22—United States Commissioner Ridgeway handed down an opinion discharging Lewis W. Wilcoxson, formerly of Chicago; James W. Taylor of White Plains, N. Y., and James Smith of this city from the charge of having in their possession a stolen United States bond.

Wilcoxson, a Klondike promoter, was arrested several months ago for having in his possession a $10,000 per cent Government bond, which was one of thirty that were stolen from the Manhattan Savings institution in the famous "Jimmy" Hope burglary of 1878. Taylor and Smith were arrested for attempting to negotiate the bond.

Commissioner Ridgeway holds that there was no proof to show that there was a deliberate intention on the part of the defendants to violate the law.

MINISTERS FRIEND LABORING MAN

Are in Sympathy With Workingmen.

Dr. Young So Declared in Street Meeting Last Night.

Brands as False Statements Made That Pastors of Salt Lake Are Against Those Who Toil.

In closing the street meeting held by the evangelical churches of the city last evening at the Kenyon corner, Rev. Benjamin Young took occasion to brand as false the statement made not long since at a Socialist meeting that the ministers of the city are not in sympathy with the laboring man.

Wants to Help Laboring Man.

"There have been rumors of late," said Rev. Mr. Young, "that the preachers are out of sympathy with the laboring man. I want to brand that as absolutely false. The church wants to help the laboring man. The preacher is interested in your problems. In the burdens that rest upon you in the mine, in the shop, in the store, and some of us know what these burdens are from personal experience. Our services are not for the benefit of the church, but for the benefit of the people. So go to church some place tomorrow. Don't mind if you haven't a silk hat or a new frock, for the Easter service is not a millinery show. I invite every one of you here to some church tomorrow and join in the service of praise and gladness for the risen Lord."

An Impressive Talk.

Rev. Mr. Young made the above remarks just before the closing hymn was sung and after Rev. Mr. Helmick had finished an impressive talk on the only way which a human heart can find succor from trouble and sorrow—by seeking God. "I am not surprised that this place and that place is kept open all night and that they are filled with men who are seeking succor from sorrow," said Mr. Helmick. "I know what sorrow is. I know what disappointment is. I know what trouble is, but too many of us seek succor from sorrow in the wrong things. They bring us relief for a while, but we wake up in the morning to find that the sorrow is not gone, the trouble is not gone."

There Is a Refuge.

"But there is a refuge from sorrow that is lasting. When the sorrows and the troubles come there is one way in which you can find relief. When you wake up in the morning the old conditions may exist, but you have been broadened and strengthened and sweetened with a joy that is incapable of being taken away. The burdens and face new ones. Thank God I haven't a monopoly on this. It is not I who have without money and without price. The same Christ will come to you that has come to me; the same comfort will come into your life through him that has come into mine. I believe in the faith cure, am a specialist in it. I have seen miracles performed that were equal to that miracle of Galilee, where the man was cured by faith."

Must Have Faith.

"I have seen men, driven from their homes because they were maniacs from the demon drink, with their reason restored by faith cure and enjoying the blessings which come through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Men take the gold cure and the Keeley cure when they become slaves to drink and they get no away cure. The only cure is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, which gives men courage and strength to resist temptations of life. I have found that Jesus Christ is able to save men to the uttermost and I recommend to you this faith cure for sorrows of whatsoever name, because I have applied it in my own life and it has made me, by the grace of God, what I am."

Story of the Resurrection.

Rev. Mr. Walker of the East Side Baptist church was the other speaker last evening. His talk was a timely one, as he took for his theme the story of the resurrection and its meaning. He impressed upon his hearers the thought that Christ came to earth to make the sick well, to make men live and therefore he sought his hearers to seek spiritual health and life through Jesus Christ.

Revival to Continue.

A large number of people listened to the speakers last evening and joined heartily in singing the familiar hymns. The revival services will be continued all next week, meetings to be held each night at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church.

SHOT THE WRONG MAN.

Bystander Killed in Saloon Hold-Up in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22—Two robbers entered the saloon of John P. Bratt, on the corner of Second and Brannan streets, at an early hour this morning, and ordered the proprietor to throw up his hands. Bratt dropped behind the bar when the robbers fired at him.

Just then a laborer named Thomas Kelly, who was in the saloon, tackled one of the robbers. Bratt, who in the meantime had secured a pistol, fired at the robber, and it is believed struck Kelly, who fell fatally wounded to the floor.

A second shot from Bratt's pistol missed the robbers, who broke through the door on the Brannan street side and fled, and he is held on suspicion that he was connected with the hold-up.
